I. RESULTS

A. UWA

1. 6/20/91 at la Arena San Miguel de Allende in the state of Mexico, Mexico

1. The Main Event: UWA World Welterweight Championship Match: Champion el Hijo del Santo retained his title by defeating official number one challenger el Hijo del Diablo two falls to one.

2. 6/23/91 at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos in Naucalpan, Mexico, Mexico

1. The Main Event: Dos Caras, el Villano III, and Enrique Vera defeated los Puertorriquenos: Miguelito Perez junior, el Huracan Castillo junior, and el Gigante Guererro two falls to one when simultaneously in the third fall Dos Caras pinned Perez with a flying cross body block and Castillo pinned III with a rana, but since Castillo and III were captians, their result stood.

2. The Semifinal: el Hijo del Santo, el Solar I, and el Fantasma defeated el Negro Casas, Rambo, and Blue Panther two falls to one in the best match of the night. Casas pinned Santo after "un cangrejo" in the first fall; Fantasma made Panther submit to a bearhug to end the second; and they pulled a rare switch in the third: First Casas pinned Fantasma with some punches, but then Santo pinned Panther with a rana and Casas with a power bomb as Casas was going for a rana. After the match, Casas and Santo challenged each other to a mask versus hair and title versus title and the latter was signed for next Sunday's main event.

3. The Tercera: los Asesinos del Ring: Canek, Fishman, and The Killer, defeated el Gran Hamada and los Cowboys: el Texano and Silver King, two falls to one.

4. The Segunda: el Fray Tormenta, Valente Fernandez, and el Halcon 78 defeated el Engendro, el Babe Face, and The Black Power two falls to one.

5. The Inicial: Ricky Boy and Zeus defeated el Gran Apache I and el Corsario Negro two falls to one.

B. EMLL

1. 6/23/91 at la Arena Mexico in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico

1. The Main Event: los Hermanos Dinamita: Mascara Ano Dos Mil and Universo Dos Mil beat los Hermanos Rodriguez: Mil Mascaras and el Sicodelico two falls to one.
1: Sicodelico p. Masacra with a big punch and Mil p. Universo with a flying body press.
2: Both Dinamitas pinned Mil with a double "quebradora" (tilt-a-whirl backbreaker) and both made Sicodelico submit to a leg stretch hold.
3: Mil was disqualified for removing Universo's mask. So one of the three biggest stars in Mexico did a job for the EMLL to put the Dinamita over for a bigger fall later this year.
2. The Semifinal: Blue Demon junior, Atlantis, and Black Magic defeated los Infernales: MSi, Masakre, and el Satanico two falls to one in a very good match.
3. The Tercera: el Volador, el Misterioso, and el Angel Azteca defeated el Supremo I, el Supremo II, and la Bestia Salvaje two falls to one.
4. The Segunda: Talisman, Tigro, and Pantro defeated el Halcon Negro, el Cadaver de Ultratumba, and Erick "el Canelo" Casas two falls to one.
5. The Inicial: Oro and Plata defeated el Volcanico and ? (name not given) two falls to one.

2. 6/26/91 at la Plaza Monumental in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico

1. The Main Event: Mascara Contra Mascara: Stuka defeated el Invasor del Norte I (the same guy who was on Galavision three weeks ago) two falls to one. el Invasor was revealed to be "el Principe Island" (whose name I recognize) who had lost his mask under that name lat year and the Commission is not happy about guys who lose their mask then put another one (it destroys the drawing power of the mask match gimmick) and they are investigating el Invasor for possible suspension. A really big uproar would happen if this were Kendo losing his new mask in Mexico City...

III. NEWS AND NOTES

1. At a press conference on Wednesday, June 26, 1991, Lizmark introduced his son officially. "el Hijo de Lizmark" was born in October 1973 (so he's now 17), weighs 100 kg (220.5 lbs) and is 188 cm tall (6'2.02"). Both his height and weight seem awfully big for a 17 year old Mexican kid whose dad isn't nearly that big. He is also a student at the University of Mexico City, studying economics. He has signed with the EMLL.
2. A new wrestler has signed with the UWA. His name is Takana. He is Mexican, but has taken a "Japanese-like" name in honor of the wrestler who inspired him to become a wrestler, namely Jushin Liger (which they spell in Spanish Laiger). He debuts this Sunday at el Toreo. He is 170 cm tall (5'6.93") and is a natural middleweight, they say (so about 170). His nickname is "el Rey de los Guerreros," the War King. They printed his picture with his mask in the paper and he looks awfully familiar. I can't put my finger on it but he does look like a luchador I've seen before. He is a tecnico.
3. Another new wrestler debuting soon for independents around Mexico City is "Okinawa."
4. The tour of the southeast (which got more plugs in both of this weekend's OVACIONES again) is said to be going okay, but not well enough that they are yet ready to try a big tour like this again in other territories. The tour will end July 4, 1991, as scheduled.
5. The EMLL announced on 6/26/91 that the next CMLL tournament would be the Light Heavyweight tournament, and it will take place in July.
6. Holiday on Ice started Friday, June 28, 1991, at la Arena Mexico.
7. The promoters of el Danisclub in Mexico City are arranging a tribute to be held 6/30/91 for the old-time wrestler el Kalifa de Oro. Old-time friends Ray Mendoza and los Villanos will appear to speak and bands los Caminantes and los Temerarios (there is a musical group in Mexico by that name) will perform.
8. Local guy el Caballo Loco was put over recently at several cards at el Cortijo but has now "vanished." Apparently, the promoters want to use him again, can't find him, and so the reporter in OVACIONES writes asking el Caballo Loco to contact the promoters...

9. There was an EMLL function the afternoon of 6/28/91, as usual; no matches were announced but the same crew that worked la Arena Coliseo three and a half hours later was the crew at Punte Negro too.
10. OVACIONES points out a mistake in the ratings listed in Lucha Libre Magazine (which I am faxing to you today); Tony Arce and el Vulcano (los Destruyentes) are Mexican National Tag Team Champions, not NWA Champions; those would be the Steiner Brothers.
11. OVACIONES also reports that el Gran Hamada and el Perro Aguayo are both WWF Intercontinental Tag and UWA Tag Champions, and even though under the auspices of the UWA, the WWF Intercontinental will be defended in Mexico. This sounds plainly wrong to me, but that's what it says! (p. 18, 6/28/91, Francisco Arturo Rosas Plata, OVACIONES)
12. The Pegasus Kid returns Sunday, July 7, 1991, to el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos for the UWA, and Mil Mascaras returns Sunday, July 14, 1991. It is "highly rumored" that one of the matches in July will be Mil Mascaras versus Canek (no titles on the line) which Mil will normally win. In fact, expect a match to set this up with Mil Mascaras, Dos Caras, and Canek versus las Bestias Hawaianas: Kokina, Fatu, and The Samoan Savage. (This is not my speculation it's the newspaper's.)
13. The following wrestlers have "issued challenges" to the Pegasus Kid: el Villano IV, el Villano V, Rambo, Fishman, el Texano, and el Brazo de Oro.
14. For the UWA a new trio has been formed: Kahos I, Kahos II, and el Rey Halcon. They are on a tour of the north until September when they will return to el Toreo and the D. F.
15. Luchadoras Lady Star and la Guerrera Purpura have returned to Mexico City after what was called in the newspaper a "successful" tour of the "interior of Mexico."
16. Lucha Libre Mundial this week did a complimentary story on Octagon (after weeks of criticizing him and the EMLL) and titled it "Octagon: el Hombre Sensible." Talk about damning somebody with faint praise. How would you like it if the best thing anyone could say about you was that you were sensible?

17. Octagon is from Jalapa, Veracruz. (Etymology lesson: someone from Jalapa is called "un jalpeno" and that's where jalapeno peppers are native...)
18. Apolo Dantes says in this issue that his name "Apollo" was given to him by two of his dad's best friends, Carlos Plata and Al Amezcua. His debut was December 1988. The name came from the novel "The Count of Monte Cristo." He was on the college swim team at the University of Guadalajara.
19. el Solar II is the son of el Solar I. Both are from Jalisco.
20. MS1 (Pablo Fuentes Reyna) is from Salvatierra, Guanajuato
21. Masakre (Radames Coco) weighs 108 kilograms or 238 pounds and is 184 centimeters or 6'0.49" tall.

Dave, As of this moment, the Japanese magazines have not arrived yet. Just call me if you need or want anything.
